Writer, curator and producer Gareth Evans will introduce the screening (of another film than his own):

Would you like to come and see a surprise 90 minute film made in 2010 and as yet unseen in this country beyond one screening?

Described by international critics as....

"Stunningly beautiful. I don't know how you can put more into a film, or make one that's more deeply moving."

"An extraordinary film about the unknown and the unknowable."

"Such a moving masterpiece... a philosophical treatise that is as stunning to the eye as it is disturbing to the brain... I was enthralled. So was the audience around me."

"may just be the most profound movie I have ever seen."

Looking forward to seeing you!
